

HIV PREVENTION FOR TRANSGENDER WOMEN IN SOUTH AFRICA

50% TRANSGENDER WOMEN ARE LIVING WITH HIV

Transgender women represent a population with estimated HIV prevalence of $\geq 50\%$ in South Africa.

Identifying key medical and social factors influencing HIV outcomes can help develop effective prevention and treatment strategies tailored to this population.

EXPANDED HIV SERVICES

on specific subpopulation may facilitate HIV prevention and viral suppression among transgender women in South Africa.

EXPANDED HIV SERVICES

